Nobody has yet mentioned Mr. BRYAN's name for a niche in the Hall of Fame.

AFTER an election most newspapers think their patrons are entitled to some reading matter other than political; but the Goebelite organs are still grinding out the usual mess.

MR. F. ZIGFIELD, Jr., Manager for ANNA HELD and proprietor of the Manhattan Theater, New York, has offered WILLIAM J. BRYAN $20,000 yearly. Managers of Hot Air Balloon Circuits remain to be heard from.

THE cheerful idiot who scribbles for The Ewing Inquirer hasn't sense enough to distinguish between an editorial article and a news item. If he hadn't been born that way it might be worth while to pay attention to what he says; but THE LEDGER has no time to waste either on idiots or dampfools.

DEMOCRATIC legislators passing through Louisville say they expect an extra session of the Legislature early in January. Its chief object would be to provide funds for the state. Isn't it funny that a Democratic Administration is always a forerunner of financial trouble, both in state and National affairs?

MR. BRYAN's business is booming. A few days ago he was offered $10,000 to be Editor of a Denver paper, and now he is offered $20,000 to go into business with the husband of ANNA HELD. All of this comes right on the top of his election to the Presidency by the Georgia Legislature. Things are certainly coming Mr. BRYAN's way.

JUDGE SETTLE, a Beckhamite, has decided in the Warren county case that the Canvassing Board is not compelled to count the 112 Republican ballots that were unsigned by the Democratic Clerk of one of the precincts. It is such work as this on the part of the Judiciary that has made Kentucky Republican for the past five years and that will keep it Republican. The Goebel Law was built for the purpose of perverting the vote of the state, and the Courts in many places seem to have been built for the purpose of sustaining the Goebel Law.

THE Louisville Dispatch says there are some things that are humorous and more things that are not in politics. One of the humorous things that has transpired lately is the suggestion of JAMES E. CANTRILL, Judge, for the United States Senatorship. CANTRILL is a handsome, pompous, dignified, shallow, machine-ridden politician. Knowing very little law, but possessing an abundant egotism and a blind partisanship, he was exactly the person to be Judge for the Campbellized prosecutions that have become the marvel of American jurisprudence. Beyond his willingness to serve CAMPBELL and the Beckham machine there has never been anything to commend him to the consideration of what he calls "his party." At every point up to the conclusion of the Powers case he demonstrated his partisanship and viciousness. In the Howard trial and in the Yontsey case he wasn't so bad, because it was not considered that they were leading Republicans, but in the Powers case he was something awful. Under all the standards now known in the so-called Democratic party the Judge's instructions in the Powers case entitle CANTRILL to be elected Senator. To take the thing as a practical business matter CANTRILL comes nearer deserving a reward at the hands of the Beckhamites than either MCCREARY the oily, or BENNETT YOUNG the ubiquitous. He did more than any of the others. He took his judicial ermine and used it as a partisan banner, he did things sitting on the Bench in a so-called Court of justice that would have made even REDWINE hesitate. CANTRILL is the man for Senator if he wants it. CANTRILL has earned his reward.

Count Von Waldersee receives as commanding officer of the Germans in China $500 a month, besides $750 as Field Marshal, and $2,500 for what is known as "table money."

RECOMMENDS IT TO TRAVELERS. G. H. Hausman, Lima, O., Engineer L. E. & W. R. R. writes: "I have been troubled a great deal with backache. I was induced to try Foley's Kidney Cure, and one bottle entirely relieved me. I gladly recommend it to any one, especially my friends the train men, who are usually afflicted." J. Jas. Wood & Son and Armstrong & Co.

FACTS AND FICTION. Experience of Mayaville Citizens Are Easily Proven to be Facts—Outside Testimony is Apt to Savor of Romance.

The most superficial investigation will prove that the following statement from a resident of Mayaville is true. Read it and compare evidence from Mayaville along with testimony from outside places, published side by side with this in the columns of this paper. Investigate still further and you will be surprised at the number of people in Mayaville who re-echo what this citizen says:

Mr. W. H. Paul of Market street, near Third, says: "I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, and one box cured me of pains in my back and other evidences of a disordered condition of the kidneys that had given me much trouble for two years or more." This statement of fact is the strongest endorsement Doan's Kidney Pills could have as to their wonderful value.

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. FOSTER-MILBURN CO., Buffalo, N. Y., Sole Agents for the United States. Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no substitute.

Mrs. L. V. Davis has just received all the latest novelties in Millinery.

White's Cream Vermifuge removes the unhealthy tissue upon which worms thrive; it brings, and quickly, a healthy condition of body, where worms can not exist. Price, 25 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Prof. D. W. Batson, Dean of the Faculty of Kentucky Wesleyan College, Winchester, has resigned because of a disagreement with other members of the faculty over students taking part in out-of-town athletic contests.

For all fresh cuts or wounds, either on the human subject or on animals, Ballard's Snow Liniment is excellent; while for corn-huskers' sprained wrists, barbed wire cuts and sores on working horses, it cannot be too highly commended. Price, 25 and 50 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

"A POOR RELATION."

The advisability of securing your seats at once for the extraordinary engagement of Sol Smith Russell's great play, "A Poor Relation," is earnestly recommended to the lovers of clean, wholesome amusements. Frank Keenan, the clever young actor, that Manager Fred G. Berger has engaged to play Mr. Russell's part of Noah Vale, gives an impersonation of the leading character in Mr. Kidder's beautiful comedy that is remarkable for its sincerity, its unstudied pathos and unforced humor. In the company supporting Mr. Keenan this season will be Misses Maud Abbott, Mathilde Woffing, Fannie Barry Sprague, Katherine Dooling and the two children, "Rip" and "Patch;" and Messrs. George R. Sprague, George B. Miller, Marcus Moriarty, John Cumberland and Charles Buman. "A Poor Relation" will be given with every attention to details, as new and original scenery, properties and stage settings are carried with the company.

At the Washington Opera-house Monday, November 19th.

To remove a troublesome corn or bunion. First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily; rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days, to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Drugstore.

NEWS IN KENTUCKY.

SHOT FROM AMBUSH.

Near Jackson, Joel Tharp Was Fired on While in His Yard Washing For Breakfast.

Jackson, Ky., Nov. 17.—Friday morning about daylight Joel Tharp was shot from ambush. He was at his home, about six miles from here, on Smith's Branch, and had just come out into his yard to wash for breakfast when he was fired on. The ball struck him in the right shoulder and may prove fatal. It is not known who fired the shot, as it came from the woods near his house. Tharp was fired on by some unknown party about six months ago in the same manner, but escaped being hit. It is also reported that some parties undertook to rob Mr. Bryant Spicer, who lives about eight miles from here on the river. They succeeded in breaking into the house, but Spicer used his shotgun and they left before getting anything. They were tracked four or five miles by bloodhounds, and it is thought Spicer fatally wounded one or more of them. The robbers rode stolen horses to Spicer's house, but they returned there during the night to the place from which they got them, and the saddles were bloody, showing that wounded men rode them.

INJURED BY A FALL.

She Was Dying When the Wedding Ceremony Was Performed, and Succumbed Soon Afterward.

Carlisle, Ky., Nov. 17.—Mrs. Oliver Kash Clay died at the home of her father, in this city, a few hours after her wedding, which took place under the most distressing circumstances. Mrs. Clay was Miss Inez Burgess, a beautiful young woman. She had been engaged since youth to Mr. Clay and the wedding date had been set for November 15. All preparations had been made for a church wedding, when on Sunday Miss Burgess, while leaving her home, slipped on the porch and fell, her back striking a sharp part of the step and breaking the spinal column. Her injuries were necessary fatal, but the broken-hearted lovers desired that their troth should be plighted before death. Kneeling beside the bed of his sweetheart, the groom and the dying woman took the vows. A little later she was dead.
